

John J. Coleman Ph.D.

President, Prescription Drug Research Center LLC (PDRC), George Mason University Enterprise Center, (www.pdrcllc.com).

PDRC is a subsidiary of Bensinger, DuPont & Associates (BDA) of Chicago, IL.

History:

Retired DEA, thirty of service;

Assignments:

Assistant Administrator for Operations (the highest career position in the agency)

Global responsibility for the law enforcement and regulatory functions of the agency, including regulated pharmaceutical products;

Special Agent in Charge of DEA offices in France (Marseille), Boston, Chicago, and Newark;

Supervisory positions in France (Paris), New York, and Washington, D.C.;

Director of DEA training at the FBI Academy in Quantico, Virginia.

Professional Awards:

DEA Administrator's Award

Presidential Points of Light Award for community service

Education:

Bachelor of Arts, Iona College

Master of Science, National College of Education

Master of Arts, Rutgers University

Doctor of Philosophy, George Mason University

Advanced management training, Harvard University's JFK School of Government

Graduate of the FBI's National Executive Institute.

Publications:

Author or co-author of numerous academic articles on the regulation of controlled substances and the abuse of prescription drugs.

Doctoral dissertation, Reducing Prescription Drug Abuse by Design, a study of novel drug designs and formulations that inhibit the abuse of controlled substances, was nominated for a national award by George Mason University and published in 2007.

Professional Responsibilities and Membership:

Board of Directors, North Conway Institute

Non-profit substance abuse educational organization affiliated with the Boston Foundation.

President of Drug Watch International, (elect. 2005)

A global NGO devoted to drug abuse prevention and education

Board of Directors, Friends of Ecuador, Inc.

Washington-based NGO formed to promote legal reforms, drug control, and civil rights in Ecuador

Board of Directors, DoctorsSafeguard.Com

Web based training for the medical community to combat drug seeking behavior

Member of the Federal Law Enforcement Officers Association,

American Pain Society

National Association of Drug Diversion Investigators

American Association of Industrial Security

Association of Former Federal Narcotic Agents (past president)

International Association of Chiefs of Police.